

Welcome

Dear Friends,

Happy July 4th weekend! We are excited you are with us today at Rivermont Baptist Church! We welcome you today with hearts full of joy as we gather to worship the One that sits "upon the circle of the earth."

In Isaiah chapter 40, we are called to "Behold your God!" A holy invitation and instruction to lift our eyes above life's trials and behold the matchless greatness and tender goodness of our Lord. He is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth, there is no searching of His understanding and His strength never fails. Yet, in all His majesty, He gently leads His flock and carries them in His bosom.

May today's service stir our hearts to see God more clearly, to trust Him wholeheartedly, and to rightfully give Him all our praise! Behold your God – and be renewed in His strength!

Love in Christ,
Pastor Justin Dove

Argentina

Dear Friends, Prayer Partners, and Faithful Supporters,

We are rejoicing in two more precious souls that have accepted Christ as their Savior since our last prayer letter. The first is Luz, a woman from the Dominican Republic who moved to Argentina many years ago and is married to an Argentine. The second is Brenda, a realtor who is helping us to look for another house. Please pray for Brenda as she is dealing with some very serious health issues. Please also pray for their husbands to get saved and come to church. Continue to pray for Felipe, his mother Adriana, and grandmother, Norma. He and his mother lost nearly everything in the flood we talked about in our last letter and are living with the grandmother, Norma.

In August, we will be back in the States for a for a couple of months to take Caleb, our oldest, to Crown Bible College. Please be in prayer for him as he makes this big step in life, and for us as we will be coming back to Argentina without him.

Please pray for an Argentine brother, David Tapia who will be filling the pulpit for me in our absence. He has taught for us many times, plays the guitar, and sings. He is a great help and blessing.

Please continue to pray for the new church work, for more souls to be saved, and that things will go smoothly in our absence.

Pray for our housing situation as we hope to move before furlough.

Thank you for your faithful prayers and support.
