

Welcome

Dear Friends,
Welcome to Rivermont Baptist Church this first Sunday of March! We are quickly approaching the spring season where we witness in nature new life and fresh beginnings.

I am excited to begin a new three-part sermon series this morning on "Having an Eternal Perspective." Our text for this morning's message is found in Revelation chapters 19 and 20. Today's message is titled, "Having an Eternal Perspective on Here."

Thank you for being here today. Your presence is a blessing and encouragement. It is our prayer through the preaching of His Word you will leave refreshed, renewed, and rejoicing in the hope we have in Christ. May the promise of spring remind us of the greater promise of eternity, and may we live each day with our eyes fixed upon Him.

Love in Christ,
Pastor Justin Dove

Dear Friends, Prayer Partners, and Faithful Supporters,

It is hard to believe 2025 has come to a close. We are grateful for all that God has allowed to happen during the past twelve months. In our last letter, I made known our intention to build a large educational building on the property in Kanyama for the school there. We are so grateful to announce that the expense for that building has now been covered! We are so grateful, and this is a big relief for us as we travel back to the USA soon for our furlough.

In December, I traveled to Chikuni once again to teach a small block class with several of the leaders there. It was good to gather with the people and teach about important truths from God's Word.

We thank God for everything He has done and everything He will do in the future. Thank you for partnering with us!
Lifting Up Jesus, Justin Sauder Family

Be careful for nothing;
but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.
